

The ISGF World Committee has been very pleased to receive the application for membership from:

Nepal Scout and Guide Fellowship.

The World Committee has studied their national Constitution as well as their activities and financial reports. This National Organisation subscribes to the principles, aims and objectives of the International Scout and Guide Fellowship as set in its Constitution. This National Organisation is independent.

This National Organisation has 130 affiliated members spread all over the country. It accepts the financial commitments of the International Scout and Guide Fellowship.

This National Organisation is represented at the World Conference of Bali.

Their application has been considered by the World Committee members according to ISGF Constitution (Article 5, section 3), who hereby recommends to the World Conference the granting of ISGF Full Membership with the following resolution

The World Conference accepts the Full Membership of The “Nepal Scout and Guide Fellowship”.