"A powerful social message " All are aware about India's First registered "Signal Shala ", where street kids study under a flyover in Thane. In my previous report a detailed study of this school was given. On 11.4.18 , evening , our team visited this school children and had lots of fun filled moments with them. Even though they play in school, we tried to organise some spot games , properly planned according to their age , and each child was a recipient of different gifts. Love to see the sparkle in their eyes while receiving appreciation and a pat on their back. The girls (upper primary section) of this school are in need of Sanitary pads, their basic need towards hygiene. There are seventeen girls of different age group, we could help them with lots of Sanitary pads, hope which will suffice for a year or more. Caring a girl child is like caring our Nation, by creating awareness of health, hygiene and a clean body- this was our powerful social message to community. Surely I could not have done this without the support of my team Thane and the encouragement of the Senior members of Ind. SGF MS
