PFADFINDER-GILDE ÖSTERREICHS
The Austrian local Scout and Guide Fellowship of Hörsching did a great job for Scouting. Due to the COVID-19 there will not be a camp, but the Scouts wanted to have their flag parade. True to the motto of the Guilds "I fulfil", the toughest guild members rammed an insanely deep hole in the ground, concreted it and gave the scouts a flagpole and a WOSM flag as a gift. Thanks to the community for the cool flagpole and of course to the Guild

Trefoil Guild Cape West Region, South Africa
Jean Lewis, from Cape Town Trefoil Guild, South Africa, informed us about the good turn, they participated in, during this Corona pandemic. Trefoil Guild contributed to Cape West’s Region a total of 1424 Hope jars, which were donated to many different charities in the Western Cape. The Hope jars project was a Girl Guide South Africa project, as this year they are celebrating 110 years of Girl Guides. So, each Region was asked to fill 110 jars. Cape West far surpassed that amount. The contents of each jar was rice, lentils, soup mix (lentils), soup powder, soya mince, and a stock cube. To this the recipients were to add 2.5 litres of water. This then made a hearty meal for 4 people. There were more contents than jars, so these were also handed to various folk. Many people in the Western Cape had a hot meal, which I’m sure was well received. Some Trefoil Guilders in South Africa are member of ISGF via Central Branch.

Arab Scout region: Scouts helped with the relief efforts in Lebanon, despite the continuation of the Corona Pandemic and the heat of the atmosphere. Scout teams from all associations continue to clean explosion remnants and arrange houses of worship, hospitals, schools and orphanages, as well as helping families clean their homes and secure basic food needs. To support the Lebanese scouts in continuing to do their duty donations were sought from among the Pioneer Scouts (adults) who are members of ISGF.

ISGF WESTERN HEMISPHERE REGION CONFERENCE

They will be celebrating their 4th Anniversary with a virtual gathering Via Zoom on Saturday 5th September. “It is just a symbolic milestone to remember the work every one of us carries out every day for the benefit of our communities and, most important, for the support of the groups of Scouts and Guides, who help to develop better human beings without expecting any reward”.

Janet Ditchett - Kent

I have a particular connection with the B-P Guild as my father was a Scout master with the 11th Ealing Scout Group around 1915. He used to be in the original Gang Shows with Ralph Reader, and was well known as being able to play a tune on a watering can.

Brian Bell from America wrote to say that his father Donald Bell was a member of the BOAC( British Overseas Airways Corporation) B-P Guild branch at Heathrow. BOAC provided this Guild branch with accommodation to hold their branch meetings at that time. Donald's membership card clearly shows that he was a member in April 1954 when he worked for BOAC. Brian who served in the RAF himself was a member of (IFOSAG) the International Fellowship of Former Scouts and Guides, now (ISGF). Brian's membership card shows he was a member back in 1969 and was serving in the RAF in Cyprus.

Good work by our members during the Pandemic

Robert Nicol from Edinburgh has been carrying out telephone calls with his "clients" at Cyrenians over the past 15 weeks to check they are OK and asking them what they have been doing? Rally Round the Standard, 16 - 19 October 2020

Princess Mary, the Princess Royal, was President of the Girl Guides Association from 1920 until her death in 1965. She was also President of Norfolk Guides, who made this standard as a gift for her wedding in 1922. It was used throughout her Guiding life and is now displayed in Princess Mary House at Foxlease.

For the modest payment of £10 you may join the Facebook group on which further details of our plans will be unveiled. You will also receive a camp badge and printable certificate to commemorate your non-attendance.

The small print: this non-attendance Rally is to raise funds towards the cost of conserving Princess Mary’s standard at Foxlease. The event will take place only in the imaginations of its participants, and on the Facebook group.
