SOME FACTS ABOUT NEW YORK City, USA

New York, called "The Big Apple", is considered as the capital of the World. Situated on the East Coast of the United States, it consists of five boroughs: Manhattan, Brooklyn, the Bronx, Queens and Staten Island.

The City of New York, usually called either New York City (Manhattan), is the most populous city in the United States. Located at the southern tip of the state of New

New York, 9 July 2019

York, the city is the center of the New York metropolitan area, the largest metropolitan area in the world by urban landmass and one of the world's most populous megacities. A global power city, New York City has been described as the cultural, financial, and media capital of the world, and exerts a significant impact upon commerce, entertainment, research, technology, education, politics, tourism, art, fashion, and sports. The city's fast pace has inspired the term New York minute. Home to the headquarters of the United Nations, New York is an important center for international diplomacy.

NATIONAL FLAG REMINDER

Be sure to bring your national flag with you to be used for the opening ceremony.

Flag size: 150 x 100 cms / 60 x 40 inches

PAYMENT

All the participants who have not yet paid the balance for the conference must do so on or before July 31st.

POST TOUR

It is with much regret that we inform you of the cancellation of tours # 1 and 2. We were unable to obtain the minimum number of participants for either one, as required by the tour agency. However, we still have tour # 3 which involves a two-day sightseeing of famous places and monuments in Manhattan concluding on the second day with a fabulous Broadway show. On 09/20 and 09/21, you will be picked up and returned to the Ibis hotel. The tour costs $ 350.00 per person and does not include any meals nor the two additional nights at Ibis. The hotel will give you a special discount for the reservation of those two extra nights.

CULTURAL PRESENTATION

Each delegation will be given time for a short cultural presentation during the farewell dinner.
