Workshop

We prepared a bit from history.
Glagolitic script is the first writing system of slavic languages. Name Glagolitic came from the old Slavic word Gogol, which means word.

GLAGOLITIC

Brothers St. Konstantin (later Cyril) and Metod, teachers and missionaries, came to Great Moravia in 863 after duke Rastislav's request. They spent time in Nitra and by creating Glagolitic script they laid the foundation for Slavic literature and education as we know it today.

PEXESO
