

The ISGF World Committee has been very pleased to receive the application for membership from:	Le Comité Mondial de l’AISG a eu le plaisir de recevoir la candidature à l’affiliation de:
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Dutch Scout and Guide Fellowship (DSGF)

The Netherlands – Europe Region

Les Pays-Bas – Région Europe

The World Committee has studied their national Constitution as well as their activities and financial reports. This National Organisation subscribes to the principles, aims and objectives of the International Scout and Guide Fellowship as set in its Constitution. This National Organisation is a independent organization. This National Organisation has 60 affiliated members spread all over the country. It accepts the financial commitments of the International Scout and Guide Fellowship. Their application has been considered by the World Committee members according to ISGF Constitution (Article 5, section 3), who hereby recommends to the World Conference the granting of ISGF Associate Membership with the following resolution:	Le Comité mondial a étudié ses Statuts nationaux ainsi que ses rapports d’activités et financier. Cette Organisation nationale souscrit aux principes, buts et objectifs de l’Amitié Internationale Scoute et Guide tels que stipulés dans ses Statuts. Cette Organisation nationale est indépendante. Cette Organisation nationale comprend 60 membres affiliés répartis dans tout le pays. Elle accepte les obligations financières de l’Amitié Internationale Scoute et Guide. Leur candidature a été étudiée dans le cadre des Statuts et Règlement de l’AISG (article 5, section 3). Au vu de cet article, le Comité mondial recommande à la Conférence mondiale leur affiliation à l’AISG en qualité de Membre associé et propose la résolution suivante :
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

The World Conference accepts the Associate Membership of the “Dutch Scout and Guide Fellowship”

La Conférence mondiale accepte l’affiliation de « Dutch Scout and Guide Fellowship » en qualité de Membre associé